Hello Paint Horse Friends!

It's been a very busy year so far with the MEC event in January, the Missouri State 4-H horse judging contest in March, and the amazing Joe Frank Brown Preparing for Success Clinic in April.

Friday evening April 8th, a dozen enthusiastic horse exhibitors met with Mr. Joe Frank Brown for an in depth showmanship workout. On Saturday morning we continued to sharpen our skills in showmanship, while gaining attendance. After a quick lunch break, we went into English Equitation and Western Horsemanship for the afternoon. That evening 25 of us went and shared great food and fellowship at the Smokehouse BBQ Restaurant. Sunday, was trail day. Mr. Joe Frank shared his secrets on how to get more expression out of our trail horses. He then went step by step through a complicated trail pattern sharing tips and pointers. MjPHC Preparing for Success Clinic with Mr. Joe Frank Brown = Extreme Success!

Clothing includes screen printed short and long sleeved t-shirts, pull over hoodies, fleece ¾ zip pull over's, sweat pants, and embroidered polo shirts. If you have questions contact Joyce Conklin. I would like to remind everyone to support our canned food drive at the Memorial Weekend Paint Horse Show. Let's be generous and support our community!

The MjPHC is really excited for the 2011 Youth World Paint Show in June! Missouri will be well represented with riders competing, a Youth Team Tournament Team, and a Judging Team. We are running for Club of the Year, Member of the Year, and Nicole Bricker and I will be running for positions on the AjPHA Executive Committee. We plan to Paint Missouri Proud!
